WESTERLY

Gaspee, Providence, was probably fatally injured by falling from the upper pump deck of the tub. His chest was crushed.

Thomas Walsh of the Live Oak company of Somerville, Mass., was overcome by the heat. John L. Greene of the Fire Kings of Pawtucket was struck on the temple by a brake when the engine was playing.

The drawing for position in the annual muster of the New England State Firemen's League, resulted in giving the Hay Cart of Pawtucket, formerly the N. E. Dixon, of Westerly, first place. It was just a bit peculiar that the Star of Westerly should draw second place. The drawing for position was held in Providence Wednesday night and the muster was in that city on Thursday, a feature of the annual meeting of the International Fire Chiefs' Association. The Westerly Veteran Firemen's Association, headed by the Stonington Fire and Drum Corps, made a short street parade before departing for Providence on the 7:45 train. The Star made the trip by public highway.

The order in which the tubs played and the results follow:

	Ft.	In.
Hay Cart, Pawtucket	163	5 1/2
Star No. 1, Westerly	178	3 1/2
King Philip, Bristol	188	3
Columbian, New Bedford	169	4 1/2
Live Oak, Somerville	187	5
Mechanic, Warren	178	6 1/2
Fire King, Pawtucket	184	7 1/2
Gov. Bradstreet, North Andover, Mass.	194	2 1/2
Okonimukamessit, Marblehead, Mass.	219	3 1/2
Gaspee, No. 9, Providence	183	3 1/2
City of Lowell, Lowell, Mass.	172	2 1/2
Enterprise, Campello, Mass	219	6 1/2
Narragansett, Riverside	175	7 1/2
Alabama Coon, Stoughton, Mass.	235	11 1/2

The judges were George Hunt of Providence, President of the New England States Veteran Firemen's League, chairman; William H. Hathaway, Gloucester; Everett M. Willis, Brockton; William E. Mayberry, Braintree; District Chief Edward J. Shallow, Boston; George H. Merrill, Pawtucket; Joseph H. Cashman, East Providence; Philip A. Mook, Jamaica Plain; Edwin P. Walker, Somerville and Walter H. Hildreth, Providence.

Members of the committee having charge of the muster were John J. Keam, Providence; John G. Stevens, Marblehead; Patrick Manning, Amesbury; Frederick P. Hunt, Cranston and John Hargaden, Newton.

David L. Adamson of East Boston was the official timekeeper.

Local Laconics.

The scallop season opened at midnight Thursday in Rhode Island.

Haswell McLellan, United States Naval cadet, is at his home in Westerly on a month's leave of absence.

Movie picture makers have been seen at work so much in Westerly that their free acts attract but few admirers.

Arrangements have been completed for the big Labor Day parade in Westerly, which will start at 9 o'clock in the morning.

The body of Philip Herbert, master mechanic of the Pawcatuck Woolen company, who was drowned at Potter Hill, several weeks ago, has not been recovered.

Miss Ruth McKenzie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil McKenzie, of Moss street, and George F. Wilcox, of Ashaway, were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents. They were attended by Miss Jessie Smith and Charles O'Neil. The wedding ceremony was conducted by Rev. Frederick A. McDonald, pastor of Pawcatuck Congregational church.

STONINGTON

Benefit Concert for First Baptist Church Largely Attended.

The concert for the benefit of the First Baptist church in Borough hall Thursday evening was a complete success from every angle and was enjoyed by a large audience. An excellent programme was rendered by Miss Gladys McGowan of Mystic, the Maxson Trio of Westerly, a quartette composed of Messrs. Coleman, Conahan, Browning and Koehl, and Miss Deau Gram and Ralph Koehl, in solos.

Lobster fishermen complain that pilferers are pilfering their pilchard.

Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Spaulding of Miami, Fla., formerly of Stonington, are visiting in the borough.

MAKING IMPROVEMENTS ON COLLEGE GROUNDS.

Cutting of Grass and Removal of Sand at Blackstone House.

Connecticut college has purchased a team of horses for use in keeping the college land in good condition. The college roads in repair, and college farm lands plowed and harvested. Wednesday the horses were engaged in cutting the grass on the hockey field and their use has already improved the appearance of the land immediately surrounding the college buildings.

Another improvement which will be particularly beneficial to the appearance of the campus is the removal of the big sandbank which stretched across the campus in front of Blackstone house and obscured the view from the first floor windows of that dormitory. The sand is being carried across the campus to the new dormitory now in process of construction, where it is being used in grading.

NATIVE OF BROOKLYN.

Rear Admiral Charles F. Pond of the Memphis Was Appointed by Congressman John T. Wait.

Rear Admiral Charles Fremont Pond, whose flagship was the Memphis, driven ashore at San Domingo Tuesday, and who was on shore when the accident happened, was born in Brooklyn, Conn. He has been in the United States navy about 40 years.

Rear Admiral Pond was born Oct. 28, 1856, the son of Enoch Pond and Sarah Ann Utley Pond. He was appointed to the United States naval academy by the late Congressman John T. Wait of Norwich after a competitive examination for the appointment. After being commissioned in the navy he became an expert mathematician and hydrographer, and at one time in charge of the time ball and observation station at Mare Island navy yard. While at the navy yard he made a complete survey of the coast of California.

At the time of the Spanish-American war he was in charge of the U. S. S. Itasca, which was sent to Honolulu. A survey he made of the Midway Islands was used by the government in laying the cable to the Philippines. He was later commander of the cruiser Buffalo, the battleship Oregon and of several other vessels.

Not the Bremen.

The submarines D-2 and D-3 of the navy yard base left the station at 6 o'clock Thursday morning for the waters between Block Island and Montauk Point to complete manoeuvres and indulge in torpedo practice. The manoeuvres had no bearing on the arrival of a German subsea boat.

New Zealand has thus far this year imported 940 automobiles.
